

Help Support Colorado Conservatory of Dance

Dear Local Business Partner,

The Colorado Conservatory of Dance is a thriving non-profit organization in Broomfield, Colorado with the goal to Make Lives Better Through Dance!

Every day, CCD serves a broad spectrum of students, and is committed to every student regardless of age, ability, aspiration, or socio-economic status. CCD is known as one of the BEST and most respected local ballet schools because it provides a nurturing and healthy environment for student growth and opportunity while also contributing to local Arts Education outside of the studio. In the past year, the students and staff of CCD have made the following contributions to our community:

- CCD's Studio Company performed anti-bullying ballets for almost 8,000 elementary students in 2017-2018.
- We worked with over 400 students in area at-risk schools using dance as a tool to teach core curricula.
- 150 students learned ballet weekly as part of their after-school ballet programs.
- CCD gave almost $90,000 in tuition assistance to students who would otherwise not have had the means to study dance.
- CCD taught adaptive dance to over 40 students with special needs on a weekly or bi-weekly basis.
- Audiences with special needs were delighted by customized performances of The Nutcracker and Mystery Night with Nancy Drew.
- And so much MORE!

CCD brings together the arts, education, kids and community in a beautiful way. To continue our mission we need your support. CCD's primary fundraiser for these programs is our upcoming Blossom Ball on April 20, 2018. Blossom Ball is a terrific gala event with dinner, a silent auction, and dance presentations by CCD students. This year our goal is to raise over $35,000. Your support is crucial to the success of the event and CCD's future outreach efforts. Therefore, we would be thrilled if you could offer a donation for our Silent Auction. Please contact Rachel Long at rlong@ccdance.org if you need assistance with donations.
